

Hope Here and Now Drama

Luke TryHarder: I can't believe my brothers thought I would never become a Star Warrior! Well, look at me now!

Obi One SoHoly: You know Luke, if you really want to be the best Star Warrior

Luke TryHarder: I know, I have to learn to forgive.

Master Yoga: Forgive, you must.

Obi One SoHoly: That's right. Because

Luke TryHarder: Not forgiving robs me of my peace. It stops me from truly living.

Obi One SoHoly: Exactly.

Luke TryHarder: It's harder than it seems. Their words keep going around in my head.

Obi One SoHoly: That's why you need

Luke TryHarder: God's help, I know. I can't do it alone.

Master Yoga: Alone, you must never be.

Obi One SoHoly: So, what do you think you need to do to truly forgive them?

Luke TryHarder: I need to tell them. I need to tell them that I forgive them.

Obi One SoHoly: And?

Luke TryHarder: I need to stop thinking about everything that they have said, and done.

Obi One SoHoly: And?

Luke TryHarder: I need to focus on being the best star warrior, and stop thinking about what anyone else thinks.

Obi One SoHoly: That's right Luke. A great Star Warrior focusses only on what they think of themselves.

Luke TryHarder: And what God thinks about them.

Master Yoga: The student teaches the teacher, so it seems.

Obi One SoHoly: You really are becoming the Greatest Star Warrior, Luke.

Luke TryHarder: Thanks Obi. I couldn't do it without you and Master Yoga - or without God!

And you'll never have to.
